1. Yugoslav citizens living along the Yugoslav-Austrian border were allegedly ordered by the Yugoslav Government to evacuate a five kilometer wide region along the border. This area would allegedly be re-settled by former partisans who have the trust of the Yugoslav Government.
2. The reason for this forced migration is the claim on the part of the Yugoslav Government that these border citizens have not observed regulations concerning the reporting of foreigners in the area.
3. In some regions these migrations have already been forcibly carried out and barbed wire has been strung along the border.
